

11th Semi-Annual
CENTRAL STATES

SHOW and SALE of
SHORTHORN CATTLE

Lisk Sale Barn - Oskaloosa, Iowa

SATURDAY, NOV. 6, 1954

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Sale will be held in the new Lisk Oskaloosa Sale Barn at the northwest edge of the city limits on Primary 163.

COMMENTS OF SALE MANAGER

In assembling this 11th consignment of Shorthorn Cattle for Central States, I feel the quality and type are definitely blending into a uniformity that is to be desired by all Breeders, Stockmen and Farmers. Many of these cattle are drafted from the current season shows. I have secured Mr. Lloyd Davis of Oakland, Iowa, to place these sale cattle. Mr. Davis has one of the good herds of Shorthorns in Iowa.

BRAYWOOD SULTAN—A mature bull in his prime, sired by a grandson of Cruggleton Perfect. His potency is best demonstrated by his daughters in our herd. Two of them dropped bull calves during past weeks and we rate them the best looking baby bulls so far at Braywood. We will have them up from the pasture during sale weekend; so come out to the farm and see what we mean.
